

Figure 1.2. Confounding effect of selective mortality on the magnitude of age changes. See Fig. 1 for explanation of line segments. A floor effect or lethal limit is assumed for the variable Y. In this case the dashed line representing age differences would underestimate true age changes.